VOLUME XX

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21, 1917.

NUMBER 21

We are authorized to announce MISS ESTELL WILLIS of the Glenville Precinct, a candidate for School Superintendent of Adair County, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Primary first Saturday in August.

Personals.

Dr. J. N. Murrell visited Lebanon last Thursday.

Mr. W. J. Brockman, of Craycraft, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Scott Montgomery, who was quite sick last week, is better.

Mr. R. B. Wilson, traveling salesman, was here a few days ago.

Mr. W. R. Myers and W. H. Sandusky were in Louisville this week.

Mr. James Cole and Mr. Lewis Morrison, Bakerton, were here last Saturday.

Mr. G. W. Brockman and son, Hoskin, of Amandaville, were in town Monday.

Mrs. Ann Lizzie Walker was very sick last Monday, but is better at this writing.

Mr. W. R. Lyon and Mr. T. W. Callison, Campbellsville, were here a few days since.

Mr. B. T. Marshall and Mr. R. C. Borders, Campbellsville, were here last Thursday.

Miss Alva Knight, who visited Mrs. Arvest Hill, has returned to her home in Jamestown.

Mr. Matthew Taylor mingled several days of last week with his many Columbia friends.

Mr. H. B. Ingram, who was quite sick, with grippe, last week, has greatly improved.

Mr. Geo. R. Miller, of Louisville, was here a few days ago, taking orders for his house.

Mrs. Bettie Atkins was quite sick the latter part of last week, but is better at this writing.

Eld. Z. T. Williams and wife returned from an extended visit to Texas last Saturday night.

Mrs. Sallie Shepherd, Blanchard, Oklahoma, is visiting her sisters, Misses Eliza and Hattie Conover.

Mr. Rich Dillon, of Breeding, who spent the winter in a large drug establishment, Macon, Ga., returned home last week.

Miss Eliza Conover, who has been confined to her room for four months, is now able to be out, and is rapidly gaining strength.

Mr. J. W. Keer, Campbellsville, and Mr. W. B. Southall, Louisville, were here a few days of last week in the interest of insurance.

Mrs. Sarah A. Miller, who spent the winter here with her daughter, Mrs. H. N. Miller, has returned to her home at Crocus, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Browning left for Shelbyville, Friday, where they will locate. The best wishes of the community go with them.

Miss Ella Myers, who gained quite a reputation here last season as a milliner, has returned and will again be associated with Mrs. Geo. W. Staples.

Dr. J. N. Murrell, of this office, business trip to Campbellsville, Greensburg last Saturday and returned this Tuesday afternoon.

Ray Conover and Mr. Eres Barlett left Monday morning for Louisville to buy windows, doors, etc., for their new dwellings. Mr. Barger will go on to Memphis, Tenn., where he will join his ball team for the season.

Mrs. J. O. Russell and Miss Sallie Fields have left Bradenton, Fla., and are now at Tampa. Mrs. Russell writes her husband that she is feeling fairly well. Later, Mr. J. O. Russell left last Sunday evening for Tampa, Fla., after receiving a telegram that his wife was not doing so well.

Call on T. F. Collins for fertilizer. 21-2t.

There are many plant beds yet to burn.

Grass and wheat are showing signs of life.

The pear trees will soon be in full bloom.

Geese and turkeys are now producing eggs.

But little land has been burned for oats and corn.

Elzy Young sold to Ed and N. B. Price, 34 steers for $1,820.

FOR SALE:—A good young mare. 21-2t G. C. Garrison.

At last the sun shines bright on the old Kentucky home.

Born to the wife of Cortez Sanders, March 4, 1917, a son.

Born to the wife of E. E. Akers, March 6, 1917, a daughter.

Bees are gathering in bread every sunny day, from elms and maples.

Don't forget the date, March 23. Music and reading. Paramount theater.

It is most too early to predict about the fruit crop, but some say it will be light.

Circuit court opened at Greensburg Monday, Judge I. H. Thurman on the bench.

Friday evening at the Paramount theater, music and reading. Don't fail to be there.

It is reported that the Campbellsville pike, on the Adair end, is in a fearful condition.

No man really knows the pleasure a large flock of geese gives until he gets forty or fifty.

Louisville's most talented pupils will give a recital Friday evening at the Paramount theater.

From expressions heard there will be an unusually large tobacco crop set in Adair the coming season.

Wheat is looking better in some parts of Adair county, but the crop will not be as large as usual.

The Woman's Club will give you a most enjoyable evening. "Come and bring your sister, brother and cousin."

Mr. C. M. Herriford has purchased the bakery at this place. Mr. Nance will remain with it and do the baking.

Harry K. Thaw has again been adjudged a lunatic and will go to an asylum. Let him stay in when he gets in.

We have a good well machine and are prepared to do your drilling and give satisfaction. Call on us. G. C. & J. W. Garrison. 21-2t

Last Saturday was St. Patrick's Day. The Irish throughout the country, especially in large cities, celebrated it.

Mr. G. B. Smith informs us that the current will be turned on in full force this week. The twinkling nights have passed.

The President has been given power to arm merchant ships. The eagle will make a noise before long that will be heard throughout the world.

Ella Monroe, charged with murdering her rival, Eva Gregory, at Solway, Hardin county, was acquitted by a jury at Elizabethtown, last week.

Sanford Strange bought of S. D. Barbee, last week, two Aberdeen Angus calves for $30.00. When grown they will bring a good sum of money.

Farmers of Adair are behind with their plowing. Too much wet weather has retarded progress, but they will work all the faster when the warm days come.

Gardening time will soon be here, but it will cost more to plant one than for many years in the past. Potatoes four to six cents per pound and onions 10 cents.

Mr. Ray Strange and Miss Gladys Jones, of Glenferry, were married by Rev. F. J. Barger, at the latter's residence, on "Bomar Heights," in Columbia, last Sunday.

At Rollin Browning's sale, last Tuesday, everything sold well. Corn brought 98 cents per bushel, hogs sold at a fancy price. The farm machinery brought good money.

Mr. Walter Elrod, of this place, had the misfortune to get his right shoulder dislocated last Thursday morning. He attempted to get in an automobile when he fell. Dr. Cartwright reduced the dislocation.

It now looks like the tax law will not be put upon its passage until just before the expiring hours of the extra session. The session is about two-thirds gone and nothing has been accomplished.

For Sale.

At my home on Campbellsville pike, 1 mile from Columbia, four Jersey cows as follows: 2 good milk cows, 7 years old; 2 Jersey heifers due to be fresh in April or May. If not sold before April, they will be sold on the public square, in Columbia, on Monday, April 2nd, to the highest bidder. Mrs. Mary S. Biggs.

Miss Laura Smythe received at this express office last week, three fine Duroc Jersey hogs. Those who examined them, pronounced them equal, if not superior to any hogs ever brought to this county.

Until the first of April we will furnish McCall's magazine one year with free pattern; Farm and Home one year, Woman's World two years and The Adair County News one year all for $1.40. Subscribe now.

Mr. John Will Compton, who was a lawyer at Edmonton for more than a half century, died Monday of last week. He was seventy-six and had been an active member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for many years.

Quarterly meeting will be held at the Methodist church, Saturday Mch. 24, and Sunday the 25th. Preaching by Rev. S. G. Shelley on the 24th at 11 a. m. and on the 25th at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Everybody invited.

The per capita expenditure for the school population in Kentucky of 690,880, is $9.76; based on the attendance it is $22.90. The cost of carrying a pupil through the first eight grades is $183.20, based on attendance. Of this cost $3,024,554 is paid out of State funds, on a per capita apportionment of $4.37.

A letter from J. C. Blair states that he has located at Lake City, Iowa, route 2. He has rented a farm of 137 acres, bought four horses and some farming machinery. He will put eighty acres in corn. Corn is selling at this place at 95 cents per bushel, flour $5.20 per cwt., potatoes, $3 per bushel.

Mr. P. A. Chelf, of Casey Creek, was in town Thursday and called to pay for The News, but it was not accepted as he had already paid till Jan. 1919. Strange but true, some men get the paying habit and forget, while many get the forget habit and fail to pay. We appreciate men of Mr. Chelf's standard.

The oldest coin exhibited in this section, so far as we have heard, is a Spanish silver dollar made in the year 1311, and now owned by Mr. I. W. Hidge, a traveling salesman from Indiana. This piece of money was unearthed on an Indiana farm near some Indian mounds. The coin's date is clear and bears the picture of King Charles 4th, of Spain.

I have purchased the Bakery in this town and will furnish the people the best of bread at the lowest price possible. Strictly cash to the retail trade, accounts only with merchants. In connection with the bakery I have opened a first-class restaurant and will give the best of service. When you need good bread or want a meal call on me. I furnish pies, cakes and desserts. Will pay cash for eggs and butter. C. M. Herriford Columbia, Ky.

The Russian people surprised the world last week by a sudden change from a Monarchical government to that of a republic. The Czar no longer wields the scepter of powers but the people will shape, control and enjoy a government of their own. Choosing, The European conflict will bring many changes to other nations and Germany may be expected to limit the power of the Kaiser or overthrow the kingdom and erect a republic, when hostilities ends between the nations, or like Russia, a surprise may come at any time.

Misses Katherine Gili and Leonora Lowe entertained at a St. Patrick's party, in honor of the Columbia Graded and High School teachers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Lowe, Saturday evening, March 17th. The decorations, favors and refreshments carried out the color scheme of yellow, green and white. Those receiving invitations were: Misses Mabel Ewen, Sue F. King, Hattie Neagle, Evelyn Clark, Louella Roach, Vic Hughes; Messrs Arthur S. Kelley, Herschel Baker, Fred Hill, George Montgomery, Tom Patterson, Rollin Gundiff, Doc Walker, Ray Flowers; Mr. and Mrs. Nat Walker.

Leg Broken.

Last Thursday night Roy Rasner had the misfortune to get one bone of his right leg broken just above the ankle. He was walking on the concrete, opposite Mr. E. L. Sinclair's residence, when an auto came down the pike at a rapid gait. Desiring to ride, Roy jumped to catch the machine with the result as above stated. It will take several weeks to bring about recovery.

A copy of the first issue of the Vaughn News, a weekly four page, six column paper which made its appearance at Vaughn, New Mexico, March the 2, has reached us through Mr. T. E. Jeffries. It is full of local news and the business men are supporting it liberally with ads. Vaughn is comparatively a new town, but it is coming to the front as a business point. A few days before the News was launched, a bank was organized and opened with W. E. Jeffries, who married Miss Nona Jeffries, of this place, as President. The names of Miss Jennie McFarland, of Columbia, who is sojourning in Vaughn, and Mrs. W. E. Jeffries, appear in the paper. The publication is edited and published by Mr. G. E. Burns.

No one can foresee at this time, what the harvest will be for the present year, but no one can fail to see that the demand for all agricultural products will be so strong as to command high market values, and sufficiently high as to abundantly reward every producer. The world is short of supplies and the European countries short of producers as well, so it seems certain that an over supply is not probable regardless of what this country may produce. In view of the present inadequate supplies, of the high prices prevailing, of the real necessity for a heavy production, every farmer, whether land owner or tenant should crop as extensively as his powers and resources permit. Not only a large corn acreage should be planted in this section, but all grains that can be grown. After oats and wheat harvest the time is ripe for buckwheat—a grain crop of value that every farmer should grow, and is now selling at $1.50 or more per bushel. If wheat fails or oats blast you still have a chance to realize a good grain crop in buckwheat—good for man or beast. Also plant more potatoes, more beans, and more of every vegetable, for there's a market for every surplus commodity. Sow rape for hogs and sheep, peas and soy beans for cattle. The hog market never was so good for the producer, and even if it falls 100 per cent., it still leaves a profitable margin. Push the pigs for the world needs meat and the farmer needs the profit. By pasturing rape and using a moderate supply of corn or buckwheat, the pigs soon become tops and you will be well rewarded. Then the farmer's wife and daughters and even the ladies of the towns can well afford to produce more poultry, eggs and feathers may not continue for a whole year, but will never fall below profitable production, and so far as we can see, every indication points to as high prices for the ensuing year as the one just past. It's the farmer who has grain, stock and vegetables to sell, and the ladies who put on the market, poultry, eggs, feathers and butter, who are building bank accounts. It is a year of great inducement to the agricultural people to become busy and stay busy the entire season. The opportunity is ours. No time for fears or indecision. Plant a big crop of corn, tobacco and small grains and with good season and intelligent cultivation a bountiful reward is certain.

Notice.

I want every one owing me to call and settle, as I need the money. From this date I will do strictly a cash business. J. M. Kearnes. 19-3t

For School Superintendent.

In to-day's paper the name of a candidate for School Superintendent appears, who is perhaps the best known young lady in Adair county—Miss Estell Willis, of the Glenville precinct. She belongs to a Democratic family, and politically speaking she has heard Democracy discussed around the fireside since she was a child. Believes in the principles enunciated by said party, and feels that she is not demanding too much when she asks it to support her in this contest. She is a young woman of strong character, caters to the higher ideals, and has been a teacher of the youth for a number of years. As an instructor she ranks with the best of teachers, and is popular with both parents and pupils in every district in which she has taught. She is thoroughly qualified for the position, and there is not a doubt but she would make an ideal school superintendent. In making this announcement it is not out of place to state that she has received encouragement from nearly all the precincts in the county, but before the primary she hopes to meet and personally present her claims to as many voters as possible. She is a daughter of Herschel P. Willis, one of the best citizens in Adair county, a gentleman who is justly proud of the record his daughter has made as a teacher.

For Sale.

One genuine Gas or Kerosene Engine, 8 H. P., and guaranteed for 5 years. Also one genuine French Burr Grist mill, 16 inch burrs. G. M. Brown, Creelsboro, Ky. 21-3t

Jamestown Road Won.

Last Friday was the day set apart by the Fiscal Court of Adair County to receive bids from citizens, living on different roads, to secure the State aid money for road purposes. Quite a number of people were in town, and at 2 o'clock p. m., they assembled in the court auditorium. Judge Herri-ford asked for bids and two were handed in—Jamestown and Glasgow roads. The road having the most money subscribed was to be awarded the winner, entitling it to the State Aid and the sum that would be received from the county. The Glasgow road's bid was $3,003.50 and Jamestown $3,532.50 the latter winning. The court requested of the winner a bond with approved security for the prompt payment of the sum donated. The best of feeling prevailed during the contest.

They are Coming Back.

It will be remembered that some months ago, Rural Burton made his escape from the jail yard, having just returned from road working, in company with other prisoners. Jailer Jeffries located him a few days ago, in Lebanon, Ohio, had him arrested, and deputy Sheriff Clyde Crenshaw left for him Thursday morning.

Another fugitive, Leslie Perkins, who badly stabbed a man by the same name at Knifley, two years ago and escaped, has been located. He is in jail at Petersburg, Ill. Sheriff S. H. Mitchell left for him Thursday morning. In all probability by the time this paper reaches its readers both of the above named prisoners will be in jail in Columbia.

Since writing the above, Nat Walker, deputy sheriff, left for Ottaway, Ill., for Pinus Bault, also charged with a felony.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF KY.

In the matter of William O. Burton, In bankruptcy. Bankrupt.

To the creditors of William O. Burton, near Casey Creek, Adair County Kentucky, in the aforesaid District, a bankrupt.

Notice is hereby given that on the 12th day of March, A. D. 1917 the said William O. Burton was duly adjudged a bankrupt and the first meeting of his creditors will be held at the office of H. S. Robinson in Campbellsville, Ky., on the 23rd day of March, A. D. 1917, at 12 o'clock, noon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, elect a trustee, examine the bankrupt and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting. This March 13th A. D. 1917.

Ben Spalding Referee in Bankruptcy. H. S. Robinson, Attorney, Campbellsville, Ky.

Over the River.

O carry me to the hills again Where crystal fountains flow, To hear once more the fond refrain Of music soft and low.

Away from cheerless, arid plains Where blighting blizzards blow, O for the verdant hills again To the mountains let me go?

From where they boast of divers trains Of level lands they've lot, But where it rarely ever rains And all's bone dry in spots.

To hills where nature's robes adorn And fairest flowers bloom By dewdrops kissed in early morn To waft their sweet perfume.

Where music born of rippling rills On balmy breezes float, Enchanting strains the woodland fills Flowing from feathered throats.

The nightbird from the branch above Chants his solemn lay, And charms his silent lady love From dark 'till dawning day.

And there's the hungry, roving fox That from the barnyard steals, Then hides among the rugged rocks To take his morning meals.

Likewise that same old cunning coon Finds his welcome bait, And by the light of the silvery moon There seeks his loving mate.

'Till music cheers the dawning light Of the bright coming day, Dispel the darkness of the night As shadows fade away.

Could I those cherished minstrels greet From the same shady bed, A healing fountain near my feet, And daisies neath my head.

War News.

Complete and definite instructions to the "armed guards" to be placed aboard American merchant craft bound through the German submarine zones have been completed by the Navy Department and approved by Secretary Lansing. They will be forwarded to the navy personnel aboard the merchant craft whenever the ships which are to be armed are ready to sail.

The nature of the instructions will not be made public. They were carefully prepared by navy officials and then submitted to Secretary Lansing, at whose suggestion some amendment was made. It is planned not to broadcast the orders generally through the naval service, but to furnish the officer in command of the armed guard on each ship with a copy when his vessel is ready to sail. The Navy department is making every effort to suppress all information regarding the armed ships, such as sailing dates, the equipment put aboard by the navy, the personnel supplied to handle the guns, or anything that might be of the slightest value to an enemy. It was said officially, however, that no conflict of jurisdiction between the shipmaster and the gun crews would arise.

False Hopes Dashed.

That strange peace and quiet in the zone of German piracy with regard to American shipping has been rudely disturbed by the destruction of the Algonquin, torpedoed without warning.

That the crew were saved is comforting, but beside the mark. The United States is to be the beneficiary of no such immunity as some hopeful ones thought.

As a matter of fact, there is no reason—from the German view—why American shipping should be held immune. There has been an element of American opinion which refused to believe that Germany would as soon—if not rather—be at war with the United States, as not. Some Germans feel at war with the United States at this moment, in witness of which it should not be necessary again to point out the Zimmermann plot and what now goes forward in the matter of espionage and worse throughout the United States.

The people must not lull themselves—nor permit themselves to be lulled—into a sense of false security from war. Despite the slow and dreary passage of tangible event the people must keep their patriotism alive; and be ready to accept the supreme event without shock or surprise. The tale of desperation which leaks from Germany bit by bit must hold the minds of the people; and not the hopeless hopes of a Germany coming to its senses, which we hear day by day.

Germany does not yet believe the United States either able or willing to arm lawful shipping against submarine attack. But we are told that such armament goes forward on the Atlantic seaboard as expeditiously as possible; and within a week or ten days more the country may hear of a German attack repelled—a German submarine sent to the bottom—by a lawful American ship sailing upon a lawful errand. It is not to be believed that Germany will brook such an act; and then the country will be called upon to vindicate its principles and its ideals. The sinking of the Algonquin is token of exacting days to come.—Louisville Times.

Two Feeding Rules.

Here are two things about feeding for winter eggs which seem to be definitely settled:

First: The hens must have plenty of feed. The lighter breeds need all they will eat, and it is seldom necessary to limit the heavier breeds if the ration is properly balanced and the hens are made to work as they should for their feed.

Second: Grains alone cannot be counted on to produce eggs in large quantities. The hens must either milk or meat in some form if they produce many eggs or produce them at a profit. Pullets fed on corn, a mixture of three parts, wheat two parts, and oats one part in an Ohio test laid three eggs each during the experiment, the eggs costing $1.55 per dozen. Pullets of the same age and breed fed on a grain mixture of corn three parts and wheat one part, together with a dry mash made up of ground corn two parts, bran one part and meat scraps three parts laid thirty-two eggs each during the same period, the eggs costing 28 cents a dozen.

The first lot of pullets ate 27.6 pounds of grain each, the second a total of 37.8 pounds each of grain and mash.

Feed the hens liberally and feed them meat scraps or milk. If milk, give them plenty of it.—Southern Agriculturist.

Four things Farmers Need.

The Middle Tennessee Farmer's Convention last month adopted four resolutions which every farmer should heartily favor and which he should see that his representatives support.

The first of these is in favor of the Torrens system. Tennessee needs this legislation and there is no reason it should not have it before this legislature adjourns. If farmers insist on it, it will come.

The second resolution asks for a co-operative associations law for this state. Here, again, is a measure to which there can be no reasonable objection and for which there are strong reasons. If co-operation among farmers is a good thing, it should be made an easy and a practicable thing. This it will not be until co-operative associations are given the same legal standing as corporations and joint stock companies and placed under such supervision as will prevent schemers and crooks from exploiting the people under the guise of co-operation.

The third resolution favors the protection of the doves in this state. This would be directly to the interest of every farmer, and no one could be injured by it. This protection should be given as a matter of course. The farmer can do a great many things, but he can scarcely wage successful war against insects and weeds without the help of the birds.

The fourth resolution favors a more effective dog law, more effectively enforced. The need of this should be too obvious to every farmer for any argument about it to be required.

Ask your representative in the legislature to support these four measures.—Southern Agriculturist.

Obituary.

Mrs. Margarette Yates, born Nov., 16, 1875. Was married to George Garrette, May 21st, 1892.

Was born unto them two children, Mrs. Georgia Hurt, of Breeding, Ky., and Mr. Ullis Garrette, of Cumberland county. Mr. Garrette was only spared to her but a few years. She later was married to Mr. W. B. Yates, August 25, 1912. They lived happily together until Jan., 29, 1917.

God in His mighty power, yet dealing justly with all men. With a spirit of love He saw fit to send the death angel into this home.

The grim monster, death, on that fatal day came, and in the presence of a weeping husband and children, took the light from out the home, the precious wife and loving mother.

After a long siege of illness which made its attack upon her some several months ago, with all the suffering and agony she had to endure, she like a hero, braved it to the end, without a single complaint.

Sister Yates has had a Christian experience for many years. Was a member of the M. E. Church South.

In the trying hour of death she was heard singing songs of Zion. Those standing by say she pointed heavenward and smiled. She soon yielded up the ghost. Her spirit took flight and has gone to God who gave it.

Now the precious companion and darling mother is trying the realities of an unknown world. She has passed over the road, from whence no traveler has ever returned, and has gone the way the living has not learned.

Although she is quietly resting beneath the cold, cold sod, we rejoice in knowing that her spirit has gone to join the celestial family of God.

The remains were brought to White Hill Church, where she, for years held her membership. The writer conducted funeral services in the presence of a host of friends and relatives, in her old home church, using for a text, Rev., 2-10. "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life." After which she was laid to rest in the White Hill Cemetery.

She leaves to mourn her departure, an aged father, James Thurman, of Cumberland county, a husband, two children, three brothers, and one sister.

"We take pleasure in extending to the bereaved our greatest sympathy, and invoking God's richest blessings upon you, trusting to meet you in glory with the deceased, where we'll never say good-bye, where no death or heartache ever come.

"Sleep on dear mother, sleep on, Your toils of life are done. Our race like yours will soon be run. We now look up and thank God For the wonderful promise He has given,

That we through His grace can meet Our darling mother in heaven." Written by her pastor. L. I. Chandler.

Rank Foolishness.

You occasionally see it stated that colds do not result from cold weather. That is rank foolishness. Were it true colds would be as prevalent in midsummer as in midwinter. The microbe that causes colds flourishes in damp, cold weather. To get rid of a cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effectual and is highly recommended by people who have used it for many years as occasion required, and know its real value. Obtainable at Paul Drug Co. Adv.

The April Woman's Home Companion.

Fiction by leading short-story writers is the chief feature of the April Woman's Home Companion

There are also many special articles and interviews that are worth attention, notably work by Arnold Bennett, Charlie Chaplin, and the Reverend Dr. Charles E. Jefferson a curious but interesting trio

Among the stories are: "Re-enter Sicily Ann," by Fannie Heaslip Lea; "Mumps and Motors," by Mary Heaton Vorse; "Aunt Kit's Funeral," by Mary Stewart Cutting, and "Timothy Mapleton's Careers," by Georgia Wood Pangborn.

In the section for younger readers, C. H. Claudy has a timely and practical article on baseball. There is also work by Helen Ward Banks, and Olive Rush. This number of the magazine is well rounded and attractive, with something of interest for everybody. Address, Woman's Home Companion, 381 Fourth Ave., New York City.

Stop Left over Coughs.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will stop that hacking cough that lingers from January. The soothing pine balsams loosen the phlegm, heal the irritated membrane, the glycerine relieves the tender tissues, you breathe easier and coughing ceases. Don't neglect a lingering cough, it is dangerous. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is antiseptic and pleasant to take, benefits young and old, get it at Pauli Drug Co., today. Formula on the bottle. 25c.

From Louisville.

March, 8, 1917.

Editor News:—

Although two previous letters from here have found their way to the waste basket, I will again drop a few lines from the metropolis of the State. I arrived in Louisville on the 30th of last December, and since that date I have not been out of the city.

This has been the worst winter I have observed since the winter of 1898. According to the weather bureau there has been 48 inches of snow in Louisville so far this winter. This is the heaviest snowfall recorded in over 30 years, but the last snow—about five inches, disappeared almost as suddenly as it came, and to-day the sun is shining as brightly as though spring has really put in her appearance. But then the weather man says we still have more winter in store.

The people out in the country as a rule think they have hard times and long for an opportunity to go to the city. But they really do not know what hard times are. I have seen more suffering on the part of the poor during the two short months that I have been here than I ever before witnessed. I have seen old, gray headed men and little children pick up apple peelings from the street and eat them. Just the other morning I saw a child of perhaps four or five years, come out to a dump barrel in front of the house and look for food. Not finding any, she turned to her mother, who was standing in the door, and said: "Mamma, I couldn't find a thing but paper, and I'm so hungry." The lady burst into tears and turned away. Now that is what I call real suffering, and I do not believe there is a family in Adair county that have been called upon to suffer what that poor lady mentioned above has had to suffer, and this is not the only case of the kind here. During that cold weather in January, at one of the schools here in the city, some little boys and girls were seen fussing over the refuse found in a garbage can, and upon investigation it was learned that more than twenty children had come to school that day without so much as a mouthful of food to eat. The teacher being resourceful, managed to supply each of these children with a bowl of hot soup each day until some more substantial relief could be secured.

Every thing in the way of food is very high. Potatoes are selling at $1 per bushel, and yesterday hogs sold at $15.05 on the open market. Eggs have been selling at 50 to 60 cents per dozen ever since I have been here, and butter is still 50 cents per pound. Even to the little white navy bean is selling at 18 cents per pound.

The people here do not seem to understand the cause of the scarcity of food, but I think the main thing is that too many farmers have left their farms and emigrated to the city expecting to find an easy time. But friends they are sadly mistaken, and I am sure that a laborer can save more money by working at 75 cents per day back in old Adair, than he can here at $1.75 per day. Labor is not being paid as well now as a few years ago, from the fact that there are now about ten men for each job, and each willing to work for a few cents less on the day than his neighbor in order to hold the job, and Louisville is no exception, in fact, I've been told that times are better in Louisville, than they are in many of the nearby cities. I talked with a man the other night who had been in Detroit, and he said that times were much better here than there, and of course you all have read of the food riots they have been having in New York. So you see that city people live hard as well as they do in the country, and if many families in the city only had the food that the average country family wastes daily, they would think they were well off. The amount of food that a good, healthy farmer consumes at one meal, would run a city family all day, and they would have a little left over. There is another consideration usually left out in the country when it rains, snows or is stormy, you lay up and rest, but not so the city, no matter how hard it rains, or how deep the snow gets, or how many degrees below zero the mercury registers, you have to work or give up your job.

I have made this letter too long, but will tell you more later.

Winter Care of the Sheep

The most important item in winter care of breeding ewes is the feeding and the problem of feeding in the South is that of furnishing winter pasture, but little thought will have to be given to balancing the ration of the sheep so as to keep them in a healthy condition and bring them to the lambing time with a bag full of milk and a heart full of love for the young. On the other hand, when grazing crops fail the shepherd has to exercise care in feeding to keep the sheep in good health, to insure strong lambs at birth, to have a bountiful flow of milk and a willingness on the part of the mothers to take the best possible care of the lambs.

Even when pasture is provided for sheep, some hay and grain are always needed for snowy weather and for some times when grazing is scarce. Then grain can be used to advantage even if the ewes are never stopped from grazing.

When roughage is fed, legume hays and good corn silage are the best feeds for the sheep. If this kind of rough feed is used, no grain will be needed except possibly a little a few weeks before lambing and for several weeks after or until pasture gets good. Alfalfa, red clover, lespedeza, soy beans, cowpeas and other legume hays are the kinds to give sheep if available. If non-legume hays have to be given, some grain should always be fed in connection with it. In this case the grain ration should be high in protein. A mixture of one part cottonseed meal, one part oats and one part corn would be a very good mixture. A half pound to a pound a day per sheep would be a feed.—Southern Agriculturist.

One potato is now accepted in place of ten cents cash for admission to some moving picture shows in Toledo, O. At one theater more than ten dollars worth of potatoes were received. Potatoes were retailing there at six cents a pound, costing about the same as grapefruit and oranges.

How to Prevent Croup.

When the child is subject to attacks of croup, see to it that he eats a light evening meal, as an overloaded stomach may bring on an attack, also watch for the first symptom—hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. Obtainable at Pauli Drug Co.

No Eggs, Milk or Butter

The following recipe shows how an appetizing, wholesome cake can be made without expensive ingredients.

In many other recipes the number of eggs may be reduced one-half or more by using an additional quantity of ROYAL Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.

EGGLESS, MILKLESS, BUTTERLESS CAKE1 cup brown sugar
1 1/2 cups water
1 cup seeded raisins
2 ounces citron
1/2 cup shortening1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups flour
5 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

The old method (fruit cake) called for 2 eggs

DIRECTIONS.—Put the first eight ingredients into saucepan and boil three minutes. When cool, add the flour and baking powder which have been sifted together; mix well. Bake in moderate oven in loaf pan (round tin with hole in center is best) for 35 or 40 minutes. Ice with white icing.

If you suffer from any of these complaints, try Black-Draught. It is a medicine of known merit. Seventy-five years of splendid success proves its value. Good for young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25 cents.

The Adair County News $1.00

From Ohio.

Hamilton, Feb. 25 1917.

Editor News:-

I noticed a letter in your paper that I wrote about the first of November. Since that time I have been too busy to write, but my sympathies are with the Adair county people, who for something, nerve, money or backbone, will not get out of the rut and live in the mud without adequate means of transportation. Here in our little city of 50,000 inhabitants we have an up-to-date city railway. Interurban system connects us with Cincinnati, Dayton and all points north. 3 different railroads pass through here. The C. H. & D., C. T. & W., and Pennsylvania. Have about 30 passengers trains daily. Have interurban service every 30 minutes, with Cincinnati and Dayton, Middle town, Franklin and Miamburg, and only one square from my house is the railroad tracks. Also the Standard Oil Co.'s plant, when I am employed as tank wagon salesman. We have on hand now about 125,000 gallons of gasoline, 50,000 gallons of coal oil, 50,000 gallons of lubricating oil. I am out in the county 5 days a week. Have about 1/2 the size of Adair county for my territory. Work one day a week in town. In the forenoon I supply to grocery and manufacturing plants with gasoline and coal oil, and in the afternoon I take benzine to the factories. Some use as high as 100 gallons every week. On that day I have no time to talk to any one.

My family arrived here on November 26. I met them in Cincinnati, that afternoon. All seem to be well pleased except Edna. She would like to go back to Cane Valley. Mary entered the High school here. For the first week or two she was despondent and wanted to stop. We persuaded her to go on, and she is at the head of all her classes. She says it is no trouble to keep up. About 1,200 in High School. In the grades where the others go are about 800. I forget to mention for the benefit of the High school, students at Columbia, that Mary says there are quite a number of negroes in High school. My wife has been real sick for 10 days, but was able to go to Sunday school today. Some time I wish I could see some one from Adair county, and if any one there wants information as to the town write me.

Farm hands here are at a premium. Some are paying $40.00 per month and board. A married man can get $40.00, house and garden, cow furnished and 2 hogs.

Corn is selling for $1.10 per bushel, wheat $1.98, potatoes $1.00. Farmers are holding for $5 or $6. Onions 15c pound, navy beans 16c to 18c a pound. Corn meal 4c a pound, flour $13 a barrel, meat at from 22c to 30c a pound. Hogs are $12.80.

Hoping some one will think enough of me to send me the paper if this letter is in it, I will close by saying get busy, get a railroad, interurban or pike your county. Then see the difference. With best regards for all in Adair county.

I am sincerely yours,
C. Short Moore.

From Jamestown, Ky.

I am always glad to see letters from my old Adair county boys. I have always believed that Kentucky was the grandest state in the Union and that Adair county was the best county in the State of Kentucky. I am still of that opinion. I love Adair county and its people. Columbia is the best little town in Kentucky. My first acquaintance in Columbia it only had about six hundred inhabitants and those were made up of the best people of the county. They were sociable, kind-hearted, energetic, painstaking people. They prided in their town and didn't shrink to do anything that would help to build it up. They were a united people, pulled together and things moved their way. Columbia is noted for its excellent schools. Educational advantages, not to be excelled in any small town in the State.

Court is over here now and four young men for the pen—Eliza Bernard Otha Grider, Buck Gaskins and Everett Hudson. Court disposed of about eight or nine felony cases this time. Several more yet on the docket.

Esco Foley, a young boy 14 years old, was arrested for house breaking at the close of the court and waived examination and is in jail waiting next grand jury.

We have lots of candidates here for the various offices in the county, but not enough offices for candidates and some will have to go without office that's bad but true. Somebody will be without an office after the primary.

Neil.

Tom Jesse's little boy died with measles, here, but there is no new cases at present.

B. O. Hurt has returned home from Louisville.

Mr. Green McKinley is visiting in this community. He will be 91 years old if he lives to see the last day of this month. He is of a jovial disposition and is very interesting to listen to, as he relates many happenings of his early days.

Miss Estelle Willis, who dismissed our school at Rainfall, will open school again the first of March.

Miss Hattie Conover and little niece visited her brother, M. L. Conover, last week.

Polk and Thomas Dohoney, of Columbia, passed through here last week en route to V. M. Epperson.

Liss Young, who had pneumonia fever, is better now.

W. T. Reynolds, our merchant, is having a fine trade.

Basil.

Tobacco bed burning is the order of the day in this community.

Aunt Deliah Coomer, the oldest person in our community, is in very feeble health.

W. C. Coomer, who has been confined to his bed for a number of weeks is no better.

Ora Yaberry is improving slowly.

Mr. George Whitlock, our hustling grocery drummer, gave our merchants a call last week and received fair orders. He stayed over night at A. J. Gowers. From here he went to Keltner.

Rev. S. C. Chapman filled the pulpit at this place last Sunday.

Born, to the wife of Elbert Monday, Jan. 22, a son. To the wife of Charles Dickson, Feb. 2, a daughter.

Mr. Peter Compton, one of the oldest men in our community, is in a serious condition with kidney disease.

Mrs. Lena Monday and son, Willie, and daughter, Zula, of Barren, Co., were visiting relatives at this place recently.

Our folks continue to go to Illinois. Quite a number left last week and others will follow soon.

Sparksville.

Few tobacco beds have been burned but most of the farmers have not burned yet.

Mr. Lossen Jones, of Tonia, died the 7th of March. He was a good citizen. He was about 75 years of age and was a soldier of the Civil war. He leaves a wife and 9 children and a host of grandchildren and many friends to mourn their loss. He will be greatly missed.

Alvin Rosson, your Rugby scribe, has returned home from the Northern part of State, where he has been employing agents for a book firm, and he is now an agent for the Nashville Nursery Co., and will start traveling in Green Co., in a few days.

Uncle J. B. Garmon's dog went mad a few days ago, but was killed before he did any damage.

L. Akin, who went to Oklahoma for an operation, has had it and is getting along fine, and will be at home in a few weeks. We sure will be glad to see him coming back.

Dirigo.

J. C. Claywell bought a young horse from Georgia Cole for $100.

Born, to the wife of G. H. Fudge, Feb. 20 a girl.

GRANDMA JOINS CHILDREN'S PLAY

She Used to Be Cross Before Tanlac Cheered Her Up.

CAN WALK UP STAIRS NOW

"My daughters and grandchildren think I'm a different woman. I am. I even get down on the floor and romp with the little ones. A short time ago I was so cross I wasn't company for anyone."

This is the tribute that Mrs. H. E. Hill, 3551 West 63rd St., Cleveland paid to Tanlac.

"There was a time when I couldn't walk up to the corner store without fear I wouldn't be able to get back alone," she said. "But that time has passed—thanks to Tanlac. I was run-down for years and couldn't do my housework. I had to leave most of the work to my two daughters. Last winter was the worst and I was told that unless I got better I would not have long to live."

Lived in Damp Quarters. "Our house, too, might have made my condition worse. For it was on low ground and was a trifle damp. That made me worse. Before taking Tanlac I couldn't walk up and down the stairs. I had to sleep downstairs. I can get up without any help now."

"My back used to hurt me so bad that I couldn't stoop over. Now I can get down and mop the floors."

Was All Run Down. "My stomach gave me no end of trouble. No matter what I ate, gas formed and I had a heavy, bloated feeling, I was nervous, and even the noise made by my two little grandchildren in their play annoyed me."

"I surely am thankful for what Tanlac has done for me. And I feel so happy over it that I have already told several friends about the results it brings."

Get Tanlac today if you are not feeling right. Delay in health matters is dangerous.

Tanlac, the master medicine and reconstructive tonic, is sold exclusively in Columbia, Ky., by Mr. L. T. Keltner sold Mr. Crit Pickett a sow and pigs for a fancy price.

Mr. S. M. Baker made a sale last Saturday and sold all his household and kitchen furniture, two milch cows, mules, corn and his farm implements, intending to go to Illinois, and after considering what a great country Kentucky was, he decided to remain with us, and is buying all the same property back that he can get.

Mr. Bradford Parnell sold to a Mr. Blankenship, a milch cow for $65.

Mr. Clinton, Moss and Chesley Bennett left with their families for the state of Illinois, last week.

Mr. W. S. Pickett made a business trip to Sparksville last week and while there visited his daughter, Mrs. Flora Rosson.

Several in this community are feeding hogs for market.

Mr. Marian Pickett swapped a young mare to Mr. Henry Bradshaw for a combined horse.

Mr. Bradford Parnell sold to Amos Coomer a milch cow for $44.

Breeding.

Plenty of rain and mud is the order of the day at present.

People are very busy now, burning plant beds, getting ready for a good crop of tobacco.

Miss R. P. Breeding lost a fine calf a few days ago.

Dock Bell called around to see the merchants last week.

Plenty of measles around here now.

Bret Shives, of Rugby, purchased from A. C. Froedge, a fine stack of hay last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Breeding are on the sick list this week.

A. C. Froedge spent Sunday with G. W. Curry.

Mrs. M. T. Fields is visiting her son, near Picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Skaggs were visiting the latter's father, who lives near Milltown, Sunday.

W. T. Froedge, of Glasgow, was visiting his daughter here last week.

Mr. Charles Garrett, who lives near Beck's Store, called on Bro. L. J. Chandler last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Pulliam were visiting the latter's father Saturday and Sunday.

J. L. Garmon has purchased the G. E. Smith place and will move at an early date.

G. W. Dillon was in Columbia last week.

Hatcher.

The farmers of Taylor county feel somewhat discouraged as to crop outlook for this year. Very little fall plowing has been done, and consequently the lateness of this season's suitable weather leaves all of them handicapped. Indications point to about one-half of a wheat crop and practically all of the winter oats are killed. A few have prepared their tobacco beds, but not over 10 per cent. Too much attention is given to the raising of the weed. Farm products of all kinds pay better and are needed worse. Stock, as a general thing has wintered well, and there seems to be sufficient feed to carry them until another crop is produced. Mules, horses and cows are very scarce, and sell readily at satisfactory prices.

Mr. R. I. Blakey had a public sale of stock this week, and the net amount of the sales was $1,700.

J. F. Campbell sold a work mule to Wm. Hancock for $100. He also sold a pair of 2 year old mare mules to Henry Sublett for $385.

Mr. Richard Gaines, who was 71 years old, died at his home, on Meadow Creek, Sunday. He was one of our most substantial citizens. He is survived by his wife and 4 children.

Mrs. Mary Speer, aged 81, died last Sunday, of pneumonia. She is survived by one daughter and 2 sons. She was a consistent member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

Mr. Charles Mardis, a prominent business man, of Lebanon, died last Sunday, after having undergone an operation for gall stones. He formerly lived here and was highly esteemed by our best citizens.

Mr. G. L. Jones, our leading stock man of this county, is placing material on his yard for a modern residence to occupy the site where he recently lost his residence by burning.

C. B. Whitney is at Barbourville this week, looking after the lumber company which he represents. It is reported that he and his family will shortly move to Mt. Vernon, in order to be more centrally located in the pursuance of his work.

A perusal of the columns of The News, shows almost enough announced candidates for a company of soldier. Each one, we suppose, want to represent the dear people. Up-to-date there are only three public announced candidates in our county. No uneasiness as to any office being unfilled in the final day of accounting.

Wm. Hays bought W. T. Speer's farm for $5,000.

Turner Cloyd, who has been in his father's store, Campbellsville, almost from his infancy, has moved to the farm here, and is going to try his hand at farming.

From Missouri.

Editor News:-

We look forward with great joy to the arrival of the Adair County News although it brings much sadness. The last issue told of the passing away of my dear stepmother and Mrs. Ellen Holladay and the week before told of the sad death of our old neighbor and friend, J. H. Smith. The bereaved ones certainly have our heartfelt sympathy. We have had an unusual winter in Carroll County, so far this time. We haven't had as much as two inches of snow this winter and no rain to speak of at all. Although we have had some very cold weather, yet we have not had any mud to contend with so far. The roads are dry and crusty like summer time. Some are sowing oats. The top of the ground is working nice, but underneath is several inches of frost yet. Alva Burbridge, wife and little daughter, Lucile, of Elida, N. Mex., are with us for a short visit. We were certainly glad to see them, and hear them talk of the beautiful country of New Mexico and the good people in and around Elida, many who are from good old Adair. Bob and Beanie Grisson sent us a bag of Mexican beans. Many thanks boys. We certainly are enjoying them these cold days. Alva tells us that G. W. Robertson comes to Kansas City every few weeks with stock. Now, Mr. Robertson, the next time you come to Kansas City, come on down to Carrollton and call me up and I will come and bring you out to see your old friends in and around Bogard. What has become of the railroad? I thought last summer it was going to be a certainty, but if you let this chance slip I am afraid if you ever live close to a railroad, you will have to move to it. Well, it seems from the number of candidates you have for the nomination of county of fices that the primary promises to be interesting. Wish I could be there to vote for some of them. Well, as I haven't any news of interest to write, will close.

Yours Respt.,
Luther M. Wilmore.

Bryan.

The boats are making good this winter. The poultry men are also doing a lucrative business.

An infant daughter of Jona Stevens died some days since.

Barnes & Miller are having a fairly good trade.

Rakestraw & Hopper are not sawing very much on account of bad weather. The mill is located on Asa Blankenship's farm.

Misses Lizzie and May Loy and Miss Nancy Hadley are taking music conducted by Miss Pearl Antle.

Mr. Alva McFarland and Miss Verta Coffey went to Jamestown and were quietly married.

Rugby.

Asa Warner has a bad cut hand at present.

J. M. Shives & Co., sold a large bunch of hogs at a good price.

Alvin Rosson will begin selling fruit trees soon. His territory is Green county.

Miss Eda Stapp, of Amandaville, re-entered the L. W. T. S., Feb. 26. She is one of Cumberland county's best teachers.

Ira Flatt has returned from Louisville, after undergoing an operation. He is improving fast now.

J. E. Rosson is profiting this season sheep raising. All young lambs growing nice.

Mr. Muncie Coomer will soon start to Georgia. He is a teacher of High School and domestic training.

Your scribe is farming this spring.

Obituary.

All Gradyville is in a gloom over the death of little Raymond Gist, which occurred in Pecan Gap, Texas, Feb. 3rd. We learned of his illness a short time before he died, yet his death came as a great shock. Raymond, had he lived, would have been seven years of age, Feb. 6th, and was an unusually bright child. We all loved the little fellow devotedly and each day we miss him more and more, but God seem cause to take him, why we do not understand. Yet we know Heaven is greatly made up of little children, sweet buds that have never blown or which death has plucked from a mother's bosom, just when they were expanding flower like from the sheath and opening their engaging beauties in the budding time and spring of life. Heaven will not be a strange place for Raymond, but like a home from which he has been detained. It won't be the pearly gates, Jasper walls and streets paved with gold that shall make it heaven for him. It will be Papa, and the "King in his beauty shining" as the brightness of the firmament and as the stars forever and ever. He will fade no more nor realize pain a wealth of love is his. We feel sad because he has gone from us, but while we weep and wonder little Raymond is happy wrapped in garments of light and warbling songs of celestial joy. And oh, weeping trembling mother how we do want to comfort you in this hour of sorrow, but the Lord alone can do that. Raymond cannot return to you, but you can go to him. Share his pleasures compete with him in the path of endless development. The good Shepherd carries this little lamb in his bosom and is looking pityingly upon you saying "Can you not trust your child with me?" And remember the cup is bitterest, our sorrow is greatest that in a little while the days of our mourning will be ended—and the morning of everlasting joy will appear. Everlasting joy succeeds the sorrow of a day.

The life of little Raymond went down,
As sinks behind the hill;
The glory of a setting star,
Clear, suddenly and still.

So pure and sweet his fair brow was
Eternal as the sky.
And like the brooks low song—his voice,

A sound which cannot die
And half we deemed he needed not
The changing of his sphere
To give to heaven a shining one.

Who walked an angel here.
The blessing of his quiet life
Fell on us like the dew,
And good thoughts where his footsteps pressed,

Like fair blossoms grew.
Alone into our Father's will
One thought hath reconciled,
That he whose love exceeded ours
Hath taken home his child.

I am Smashing Prices For My Kentucky Home Folks

D. T. BOHON

Two Big New Bohon Books FREE Neighbors, Men and Women of Kentucky

Do you realize that you have right here at home, within a few miles of you, the largest Vehicle Factory in the world selling direct to the user? Now we are also smashing prices on merchandise. We want you to have our two free books. We want you to know us. Our men in the North said we would not succeed. Even here, close at home, the knockers got after us. Our price smashing frightened dealers and competitors and they got out their hammers.

We don't care. We don't mind that. We want you to come here, see our factory, see the finest vehicles in the world being made, visit with us, get acquainted. Let's get all the truth. We are slashing prices because we cut out traveling men, dealers, hotel bills, jobbers, middlemen of all kinds.

We live in a little town down here and have neither city ways or city prices. We aren't stuck up. No cabarets or expensive city habits for us or our people. We live honest lives here among honest people where there are no saloons, no idle floating population, no high taxes. Our workmen are sturdy, clean people, the good old-fashioned, hard working kind, the blood of old Kentucky. People from all over the world, from California, Maine and Florida buy of us because we give them more beautiful styles at lower prices. Get our free books and see. Come to visit us.

Bohon Buggies—60 Days' Trial

Every Blue Grass Buggy, everything we sell is shipped on 60 days' Free Road Test. Can you beat that? See what it means. You save $25 to $50 in first cost. Then you hitch to the buggy and try it. If it isn't the best buggy you ever saw for the money, we take it back and it costs you nothing. That gives you plenty of time to decide, to show the buggy to your neighbors, to compare it with what your dealer can offer. You take no chances. We do that. We can do it because we know we have the other fellow beat a mile on quality and price.

UNLIMITED GUARANTEE BACKED BY $30,000 BANK BOND

See what that means. The buggy has got to be right. You are absolutely protected against any defects in quality of workmanship or material—not just for a few months or a year but as long as the buggy lasts.

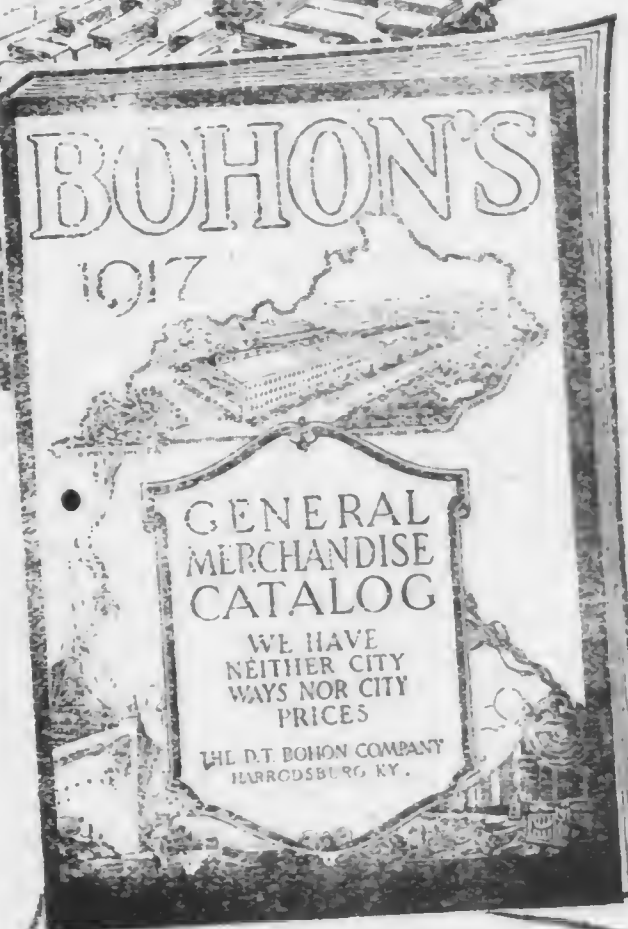

And we have backed up our guarantee. We have deposited with the Mercer National Bank of Harrodsburg our legal, binding bond for $30,000 to make our guarantee absolutely good. You take no chances. We don't want you to take chances. We are here to save you money—lots of it.

Write For the Books—Come to See Us

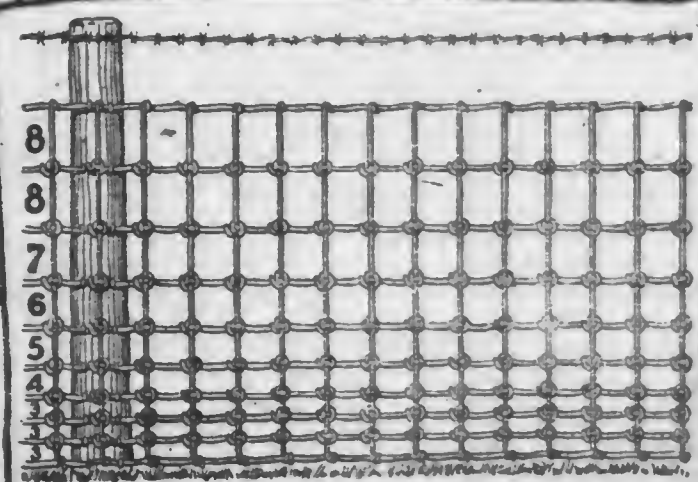

There are plenty of knockers against Bohon's plan. We have enemies, why not? We take the profits others have been making off you and give them back to you in lower prices. Don't take hearsay. Don't wait till you forget.

Do it now. It will only take a minute. A postcard will do. Write to Bohon for his two big free new books.

THE D. T. BOHON COMPANY

Belton, March 12, 1917.

Editor News:

This perhaps will be my last letter from this place. Our plan is to leave here next Monday morning, the 19th inst., via... Houston, New Orleans, Nashville, home. Our ten weeks stay has been very pleasant and we hope beneficial. There are so many Kentucky people here that we do not feel we are among strangers. Every body we have met has been so nice to us, that in many ways it is like home and home people. This is a great country in many respects, but is not a good country for a poor man now. Land is very high in all the settled part of the country. Rents are high and the rate of interest is very high, from 8 to 12 per cent, is the rate. That is for time loans. Call loans from 18 to 25 per cent. A man told me he borrowed $50 from a bank and paid $1 per month on it, which would be 24 per cent. There are four banks in Belton, and according to their own statement the aggregate deposits are over $1,000,000.

Last year was the best year here for the farmers that has been for a long time. The cotton crop was good, and the price almost double that for the past four or five years. The cotton and cotton seed of the entire state brought $650,000,000, six hundred and fifty million dollars, into the state, but the common people and renters have nothing left over after paying their debts, and have to start in the new year compelled to borrow money to run on during the year. They average one good crop every three years. The reason so many Kentucky people have made good here is from the fact they came here when land was cheap and the increase in the value of land has placed them in good financial condition.

But I started to tell the doings of the week. Last Monday was county court day here, and I went down to see how it compared with our county court in Columbia. The crowd and people reminded me very much of our court day. There was hardly as much business doing on jockey street as is done at home. One man said the business had fallen off very much since the Autos got so plentiful. Take the horse stock here as a rule and it is a very sorry grade. The stock on jockey in our town is ahead by a good deal. Every body that is able here has an automobile. The roads are fine, especially when it is dry, and it is sure dry here this winter. It has not rained since I have been here enough to wet the ground two inches.

The ladies of the Christian Church prepared a dinner on court day and furnished at 35 cents for the people who wished to partake of it. They served quite a number of plates and it was a fine dinner, the writer can testify. One of the enjoyable events of the week was seeing for the first time in life an aeroplane fly, at Temple, and people were there from all parts of the county. The business people of the town had arranged to give away an auto that day. For some days every man that bought $1 worth of goods got a ticket with chance for it. All the tickets were placed in a box, and at the time appointed a little girl was blindfolded and the first ticket she drew from that box got the automobile.

At five o'clock the Biplane was to fly. It was placed on a lot where all the people could see. Two sides of the lot was surrounded by autos. When all things were ready she was given a little push, being on wheels, and away she went higher and higher, then sailed as graceful as a bird around over the town in a circle and after all the things had looked and enjoyed it to their satisfaction, she began to lower herself, and after a few circles alighted as gracefully as she had gone up. It was a great pleasure to me to see it as it was my first. I told Bro. Bledsoe, who was with me, when I first saw her, she would never fly, and she did make several efforts before she went. It was sure a grand sight. I must say something about the weather before I close. The thermom-etor stands at 92 in the shade, and the wind has been blowing a strong gale for 36 hours and heavy clouds as though it might rain at any time, but it don't rain. When I first came here I ventured to prophecy about the weather, but my friends said there were only two classes of persons that ever predicted weather forecast. One was a new comer and the other a fool, so I quit. There are a number of Kentucky preachers in Texas and quite a number from Adair county. A. O. Kiall is at Grapeland, Texas. It would be a great pleasure to meet him, but he is too far away. A letter from Clinton Lockhart, of Fort Worth, gives us a cordial invitation to visit him before we go back, but we will hardly have time to enjoy this pleasure. A good letter from Velmer Antle, of Sulphur Springs, Texas, tells good things of former days. He is a son of one of my old neighbors, Steven Antle, who is now a citizen of Russell Springs. He is engaged in cotton buying and is doing well. His brother, Clarence, is at Athens, Tex., in the same business. It is a great pleasure to me to get these good letters from my old neighbor boys. Velmer gave me a pressing invitation to visit him and preach some. We could spend another month here with great pleasure, but our time is out and we want to get home to our work there.

Z. T. Williams.

Owensby.

Bryant, son of Sam Aaron, who has had pneumonia, has recovered.

S B Collins sold 9 head of calves to Dink Mann, of Creelsboro, for $250. There has not been any farming done in this part owing to so much winter.

Most all those who have had whooping cough have about recovered.

J. S. Coffey and son, who bought a traction engine and grist mill of S. B. Collins, will also run, in connection, a shingle mill and cotton gin.

Recently, Vernon Franklin and Miss Bettie Blair were united in marriage at this place by Bro. Edward Aaron. The bride is a daughter of L. C. Blair and 17, while the groom is a son of the late James Franklin and about 19 years old. They left in a few days for Illinois. May all their future efforts be crowned with success.

Miss Pollie Belk has gone to Texas to make her future home.

Mrs. S. B. Collins, who was partly paralyzed about a year ago, does not improve very fast, but is able to stir about some. Her sister, Mrs. S. E. Wolford, who also suffered a light stroke of paralysis, is as well as could be expected for a lady of her age.

T. C. McKinley, huckster, makes regular trips to this place each week. Also Rexroat & Whittle, proprietors of the poultry house at Jamestown.

Mrs. Martitia Carter, who has passed her 74 mile post in the race of time, is hale and hearty for a woman of her years, being still able to walk a few miles each day. It is to be remembered that she is the wife of Flem S. Carter, who died some few years ago at the ripe old age of one hundred one.

S. B. Collins will start up one of his saw mills, on the Carter place, in a few weeks. There will be quite a lot of shipping lumber sawed.

W. J. Lawless, who is an old soldier and one of the oldest men of our community, is on the sick list at this writing.

We read Bro. Williams' letters from Texas with much interest for through them we hear from many Kentuckians who have left their kith and kin, to cast their lot in the great Southwest. We were also glad to hear from O. B. V., of Somerset, for many times have we heard mother and aunt, talk of their happy school days, at the "old schoolhouse down in the dell." Come again.

Your scribe is just recovering from an attack of lagrippe.

I keep on hands a full stock of coffins, caskets, and robes. I also keep Metallic Caskets, and Steel Boxes and two hearses. We keep extra large caskets. Prompt service night or day. Residence Phone 29, office phone 198-45-1 yr J. F. Triptett, Columbia, Ky.

Clear Your Skin in Spring.

Spring house cleaning means cleaning inside and outside. Dull pimply skin is an aftermath of winter inactivity. Flush your intestines with a mild laxative and clean out the accumulated wastes, easy to take, they do not gripe. Dr. King's New Life Pills will clear your complexion and brighten your eye. Try Dr. King's New Life Pills to-night and throw off the sluggish winter shell. At Paul Drug Co., 25c.

WHAT IS COM - CEL - SAR?

DAKOTA JACK

The origin of this Wonderful Remedy is fully explained in a book entitled the "COWBOY HERBALIST", mailed free to all users of COM-CEL-SAR, Roots & Herbs and Science Soap, on request.

COM-CEL-SAR is an ideal Summer Tonic. It is not an extract, not a tincture; it is the Roots & Herbs themselves, properly prepared by fine grinding, to be mixed with cold water, as nature intended natural remedies to enter the human stomach in order to get the quickest and most natural results. The component parts of COM-CEL-SAR, as published on every package, do not only more than comply with the Pure Food Law, but are for self protection, all being copyrighted. The respective ingredients, in the order as they appear, are as follows:

SARSAPARILLA—Used for many years as a cure for scrofulous affections and blood poisoning, especially after the use of mercury.

CELERY—Apium-Graveolens anti spasmodic and nerve remedy.

CULVERS ROOT—Leptandra mild cathartic.

GENTIAN—Gentiana possesses great tonic properties excites the appetite and invigorates digestion.

WAFER ASH—Ptelea Trifoliata—A renowned panacea, used for many years in aggravated cases of dyspepsia; prevents vomiting.

STILLINGIA—Queens Roots, a cathartic, displacing mercury in the treatment of blood poisoning.

PRICKLY ASH—Xanthoxylum, stimulates especially good for rheumatism.

WILD CHERRY—Prunus Virginia, celebrated for calming irritation and diminishing nervousness.

BECHU—Great as kidney tonic; used by the Hottentots for many hundreds of years base of the celebrated Hindoo remedies.

MANDRAKE—Podophyllum, cathartic and kidney tonic.

SASSAFRAS—An aromatic stimulant and astringent similar to conchona as to chemical constituency.

CORIANDER—Coriandrum aromatic, used largely in blending.

DANDELION—Taraxacum tonic, diuretic and aperient; has specific and peculiar action on the liver.

POMEGRANITE—Granatum, a taenicide, recognized destructive agent for all intestinal worms.

LICORICE ROOT—Glycyrrhiza, a useful demulcent, a recognized remedy for lung irritation, rough membranes and coughs.

GINGER—Zinziber, stimulant and carminative, highly recommended for colic and flatulency.

COM-CEL-SAR is God's Medicine, made of Roots and Herbs. It is pronounced "com-cel-sar" accent on the second syllable. The name suggested itself because it is a compound of celery and sarsaparilla with 14 other ingredients. The name is copyrighted, as a trade-mark at the patent office in Washington.

COM-CEL-SAR is composed of 16 Roots and Herbs that have a wide range of uses, and it is intended as a tonic, body and blood builder and purifier. Its use as a Summer Tonic is always attended by marked increase of endurance with increased power for resistance of the body against different diseases.

A box of COM-CEL-SAR contains three small boxes; each one makes one full quart of medicine, so that the dollar's worth lasts one person about three months; and you take no poison or dope, no habit forming drug, not a bit of sweet, fresh Roots and Herbs, God's medicine supplied by nature. On Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, from 9 to 4, and Sunday mornings 9 to 12.

Science Soap is a pure vegetable oil soap, made for human skin only, baby, mamma and papa. 10c a bar, 3 bars 25c. On sale everywhere.
